

HARTFORD HERALD.

FRANK L. FELIX, Proprietor
HEBER MATTHEWS, Editor

Subscription, $1 per Year, in advance

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 20.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For Circuit Judge.
We are authorized to announce T. F. BIRKHEAD, of Daviess county, as a candidate for Circuit Judge in the Sixth Judicial District, subject to the action of the Democratic party at the Primary Election, November 4, 1920.

For Commonwealth's Attorney.
Ben D. King, of Ohio county, is a candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney for the Sixth Judicial District, subject to the action of the Democratic party at the Primary Election, November 4, 1920.

"SUMMER complaint" is quite prevalent just now. Its tendency is towards the weather.

The weather is getting to be almost as dry as the Kentucky editors have been since that burg at Hickman Park, Owensboro.

It is said that the aesthetic game of ping-pong is now to be superseded by the game of puff-puff. Now look out for bing-bang!

THERE is an abundance of scraps of news and news of scraps nowadays, and between the two the average editor hardly knows which to give his readers.

VANITY, it is asserted, is the motive power which moves the universe, and flattery greases the wheels. And what a lot of hot air the machine gives forth when it gets in motion!

ONCE more Mr. Bryan is called upon to say that he is not a candidate for the Presidency and will not be. It seems like somebody is working this declination business very near to the limit.

HEALTH authorities in the cities are waging a crusade against the use of dirty paper money. They claim that many cases of smallpox can be traced to its circulation. We've always been a bimetalist, a hard-money advocate, but we want to say to all those owing THE HERALD, bring on your dirty old weaselskins. We'll take the chances if you'll give us a chance.

THE Hartford Republican seems to be deeply concerned as to who shall be the next Democratic nominee for Circuit Judge in this judicial district. Mr. Birkhead having always taken such an active part in behalf of the Democratic party, we are not in the least surprised to find the Republican opposing his nomination. Again we advise our neighbor to shun to shiny on his own side.

ANYONE who has spent years of toil and sacrifice in building up a name and prestige in any line of the professions or trades, is certainly deserving of all the credit that may accrue to his work. They who would, intentionally or otherwise, credit another with the product of his genius, unwittingly rob him of what is worth more to his success than money. The faithful laborer is worthy of his hire, and he is also worthy of whatever credit his personal efforts may deserve.

THERE is still considerable talk in Democratic circles about substituting a primary election for precinct conventions, in the selection of candidates for State offices. Considerable rancor is being manifested in some quarters, which is unseemly to say the least. It seems evident that whichever plan is adopted, the Democrats will wish they had tried the other. It is a pity that we cannot go back to the old election system in our primaries if in nothing else. It would be both fair and cheap.

AT Newcastle, Ky., a suit has just been filed by Mrs. Frank Batts, a young woman, against J. J. Harford, a man of sixty-five years, which in the lawyers say has no precedent in the annals of jurisprudence. Mrs. Batts asks $2,000 in damages for an injury sustained in shaking hands with Mr. Harford. Physical injury only is the ground of complaint. Mr. Harford has a proverbially powerful grip, and in this case it was the exercise of this friendly-aimed act that got him into trouble. There are numerous young ladies in Ohio county who get their hands "squeezed" mightily tight sometimes, we guess, but they never sue the squeeze.

SOMEONE has asked us who is Vice President of the United States now. Nobody. It is a peculiar fact that nobody directly succeeds to the Vice Presidency when the incumbent of that office takes up the duties of the higher place. Nobody is then elected to the office. The Senate selects a presiding officer to rule over it, and he is not in line of Presidential succession. Nominally he is Vice President while the session lasts, Mr. Roosevelt is still competent to act as President of the Senate, and according to some very high authority, he is still Vice President of the United States, responsible in a great measure for the duties of that office.

THE Hartford Republican is indignant at the local baseball magnates because, in the absence of its chief scribe, the society editor failed to be presented with complimentary tickets to see the Indians. Jimmy is a novice. He's not yet up to snuff. He'll learn after awhile, if he stays around a printing office long enough, that he'll have to hustle for what he gets, and then he'll often grab thine air. But above all, he should never monkey with the captains of industry or of baseball teams. He should never threaten them, "cause they'll count him out every time, and he'll find himself freezing in the field. Next time, James, wait for the ball to come over the home plate before you ask the umpire to give you a base.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES L. FAIR, of San Francisco, the former the son of the late Senator Fair, who died leaving an estate valued at about $30,000,000, were both instantly killed in an automobile accident in Paris last Thursday. The manner of their death will bring about a big wrangle for their respective inheritances. The ordinary construction of the law is that when the husband and wife are victims of a common calamity, the man is presumed to have lived the longer. In such a case the bulk of the inheritance would go to Mr. Fair's relatives, and the case would be reversed if Mr. Fair died first. That last dying minute is sometimes—as in this case—a matter of much contention.

MR. WATTERSON AND THE GOVERNORSHIP.

In a signed editorial in the Louisville Courier-Journal, Mr. Henry Watterson declines to be a candidate for Governor. Taking the drift of sentiment which had almost crystallized into a formal request from the Democrats of Kentucky that the distinguished editor give his personal consent to become a contestant for the office of chief executive before the next State Convention, Mr. Watterson acknowledges the honor thus done him by his party men, but respectfully declines to offer for the office in question. He gives as his principal reason for this act, that, in consideration of the fact that he might be elected, the incumbency of the office would entail a very serious diminution of his income, besides affording him no adequate return for the labor involved. There are other difficulties, also, which Mr. Watterson knows would confront him. Contemplating along this line, Mr. Watterson says:

"Preference is not for me. Brought to the point where I must look the situation full in the eye, I am appalled by the conditions which the successful candidate for office must meet and overcome; the rogues and cheats he must court, or cozen, the servility he must affect or practice, the obligations incur, the personal solicitation, ignoble and humiliating, the use of money more or less corrupt and corrupting, for, though he have an overwhelming majority of the people at his back, there stands the machine, first to be captured and then to be deployed, with all that this implies."

With keen foresight the able scribe outlines and elucidates the true situation. He says the apple tempted him, but he did not eat. Whether he detected in the adulterous fruit the flavor of the political muscadine, he does not say, but it is sufficient for his friends—and his enemies—to know that the Courier-Journal's editor would enter the race with a prestige and a following which would make the prize almost a mere matter of acceptance. Turning to his party men in the State, he speaks as follows:

"I think I know the Democrats of Kentucky well. They are a cranky lot, but I am something of a crank myself. They will give me credit at least for padding my own canoe. Whether in the matter of 1860 they were right or I was right, all of us paid the penalty. If they were right, they whipped me and as on a certain occasion old Sam Houston observed 'they whipped me good.' That ought to satisfy them. If it was right and they whipped me wrongfully, Heaven knows I forgive them."

A TEXAS WONDER.

Hall's Great Discovery.
One small bottle of Hall's Great Discovery cures all kidney and bladder troubles, removes gravel, cures diabetes, neuralgia, rheumatism, weak and lame backs, rheumatism and all irregularities of the kidneys and bladder in both men and women; regulates bladder trouble in children. If not sold by your druggist, it will be sent by mail on receipt of $1. One small bottle is two months' treatment, and will cure any case above mentioned. Dr. E. W. Hall, sole manufacturer, P. O. Box 629, St. Louis, Mo. Send for testimonials. Sold by all druggists and T. P. Taylor & Co., Druggists, Third and Jefferson, Louisville.

READ THIS!
LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 13, 1901.
Dr. E. W. Hall, St. Louis, Mo.—Dear Sir: I am 68 years of age, and have suffered 35 years from kidney and bladder trouble, and since using less than one bottle of your Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, I have passed twenty-five gravel. I feel that I am almost cured, and can confidently recommend you to the public. Yours very truly,
H. C. THOMAS, 520 Third ave.

For Sale.
The Judge Baird property near the Water Mills. There are nine acres of ground, a large two-story residence in good repair. Also all necessary outbuildings and a fine well of water. For further particulars call on or address A. C. ELLIS, Agt., Hartford, Ky.

Stops the Cough and Works off the Cold.
Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No cure no price. 50c.

J. L. Sutton, former Sheriff of Whitely county, committed suicide at Williamsburg by leaping from a bridge into Cumberland river. Sutton had been mentally unbalanced since the assassination of Gov. Goebel, immediately following which he figured in a sensational outbreak in Louisville. He was in jail for a time under suspicion of complicity in the assassination.

The Best Prescription for Malaria.
Chills and fever is a bottle of Groves Tasteless Chill Tonic. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No cure no pay. Price, 50c.

Dead at the Age of 106 Years.
BURNSIDE, Ky., Aug. 18.—Mrs. Mary Bell, probably the oldest woman in Kentucky, is dead at her home near DuPontville, Casey county, at the advanced age of 106 years. Her death was due to infirmities of age, though until a year ago she was able to walk around the house.

CERALVO, KY.

[Special to THE HERALD.]
Aug. 18.—Rev. Sugar filed his appointment here Sunday, in the afternoon. There were four additions to the M. E. church.

Mrs. Ann Kimbley and daughters, Mrs. Baker, and Mrs. Whitaker and her daughters, Misses Mand and Ida Whitaker, of Owensboro, have been visiting friends and relatives in this neighborhood for more than a week.

Mr. V. B. Morton has been in Evansville the past few weeks.
Mrs. Lizzie Ferguson and two children, of Tennessee, have been visiting friends and relatives here the past week.

Mr. P. A. Miller is visiting relatives near Livermore, Ky.
Mrs. J. C. Ried and Miss Della Endley visited their sister, Mrs. Mack Ross, near Centerville, last week.

Mrs. Dave Hulsey and daughters, Misses Mattie and Nora, returned recently from a visit with relatives near Paradise.

Mr. Herman McConnell, who has been in Marion county the past 18 months, visited his parents near here last week.
Mr. Geo. White, of this place, and Miss Bessie Maddox, of McHenry, were married at West Providence church the 10th. Miss Maddox was formerly a teacher of this county. Both have many friends who wish them a long and happy life.

Frank W. Floyd.
The above signature is on the wrapper of every bottle of the genuine OWENS PINK MIXTURE—the baby's friend from birth until he has his teeth. All druggists.

SCHROADER SCHOOL HOUSE, KY.

[Special to THE HERALD.]
Aug. 17.—The recent rains have been much benefit to the crops in this vicinity.

Rev. Reese Romans has an appointment to preach at this place next Sunday and will probably bring a protracted meeting. Rev. Emery preached to a large crowd here last Sunday.

The school at this place is progressing nicely with Prof. I. J. Hoover, as teacher.
Miss Hallie Cash, of Dundee, Ky., is visiting in this vicinity.

Mr. Shelby Wright is confined to his bed with typhoid fever.
Mr. C. O. Martin, of this place, is at Masonville, Ky.

The singing given at Mr. J. B. York's last Sunday night was highly enjoyed by all who attended.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness cured by Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.
F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.
Sold by Druggists, 75c.
Hall's Family Pills are the best.

MATANZAS, KY.

[Special to THE HERALD.]
Aug. 18.—The drought was broken up last Friday evening by a good rain, which was badly needed.

Mr. Eddie Liegheart, of whose illness we made mention last week, died last Thursday evening of that much dreaded disease, consumption, at the home of his brother, J. S. Liegheart. He leaves two little boys, besides a host of friends and relatives to mourn his demise.

Mr. T. R. Kinschloe and family and Misses Ethel Tichenor and Pearl Liegheart spent Saturday and Sunday in Muhlenberg county with friends and relatives.
Mr. H. C. Gattson and daughter, Pearl, of Beaver Dam, were the guests of Willie Tichenor and wife a few days last week.

Messrs. A. B. and S. W. Tichenor went to Butler county last week on business.

To My Friends
It is with joy I tell you what Kodol did for me. I was troubled with my stomach for several months. Upon being advised to use Kodol, I did so, and words cannot tell the good it has done me. A neighbor had dyspepsia so that he had tried most everything. I told him to use Kodol. Words of gratitude have come to me from him because I recommended it.—Geo. W. Fry, Viola, Iowa. Health and strength of mind and body depend on the stomach, and normal activity of the digestive organs. Kodol, the great reconstructive tonic, cures all stomach and bowel troubles, indigestion, dyspepsia. Kodol digests any good food you eat. Take a dose after meals. J. H. Williams.

Estray Notice.

Taken up as a stray one red cow, now, about ten years old, with white dash on tail, and valued by Robt. Brown at $10. The owner can have same by paying the expenses of keeping and the charges on this notice. S. P. PATTON, Subscriber and return to J. S. P. Patton before this, August 18, 1902.
J. P. MILLER, J. O. C. C.

"I had diabetes in its worst form," writes Marion Lee, of Dunreath, Ind. "I tried eight physicians without relief. Only three bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure made me a well man." All druggists.

Money Couldn't Save Him.

PITTSBURG, PENN., August 16.—John Henry, of Carnegie, who was struck by a train last night at the Fourth-avenue Station of the Pan-Handle Railroad, died at the Mercy Hospital at noon today as a result of his injuries.

Lying on the platform, he offered any one $100,000 if they could save his life, but no one, however willing, could aid him.

To Cure a Cold in One Day

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Groves' signature is on each box. 25c.

MR. BOATNER'S $28,000

Caused Considerable Excitement Among the People—A Very Strange Case.

A stranger giving his name as J. H. Boatner created considerable excitement in and about Owensboro and Fordville last Thursday by his strange actions, coupled with his lavish display of a large amount of money.

He first came into notice at Deaneville, where he had stayed for several weeks without exciting any special comment. He boarded with a family named Kelly. Thursday he went to the express agent at Deaneville and said he had some money he wished to express to Fordville, to his own address. As he said this he pulled out a roll, containing principally $1,000 and $500 bills, and counted it out before the astonished agent's eyes. There was in all $28,000.

The agent nearly fainted and murmured something about not knowing there had ever been so much money in existence. Boatner insisted that he wanted it shipped to his address in Fordville and the agent finally told him he couldn't ship more than $5,000.

Later Boatner went to Owensboro, accompanied by the town marshal of Deaneville, John Guess, and the two proceeded at once to the office of the American Express Company. Here the stranger counted out his $28,000 and again told of his desire to ship it to Fordville. J. G. Burch, the agent, told him that it would cost $14 to do so and Boatner produced the necessary money from a well-filled pocket book. As soon as the "roll" had been wrapped up and sealed and he had secured the agent's receipt, Boatner went to a telephone and called up the agent at Fordville, telling him of the shipment. He then requested that the money be put in the bank, as he expected to call for it in person within a few hours.

Boatner left for Fordville at once accompanied by Marshal Guess. He seemed to be about 35 years of age and wore glasses, a flaming red necktie and low-cut shoes, and there was a glaring display of red hosiery when he sat down and crossed his legs. His hair was brown and his mustache of a darker hue. His clothing had a cheap appearance, but his general manner and carriage indicated that he was educated and refined. He said his father lived in England; that he had received his money from him and intended to buy mineral lands with it, having in view certain tracts near Fordville.

The money arrived at Fordville all right and much excitement was manifested at the strange maneuvers of the man Boatner with his cash. Deaneville is only about five miles from Fordville, and the fact that he carried the money all the way to Owensboro—about 30 miles—in order to ship it back to his own address at Fordville, instead of giving right on up to Fordville, seemed very strange. After Boatner arrived at Fordville he refused to take the money package from the express agent, a fellow named Schlitzbaum, who has recently taken the regular agent's place while the latter is away on a vacation.

Friday night agent Schlitzbaum was robbed of the package which was said to contain the $28,000. Schlitzbaum told a remarkable story. He says that about dark, after he locked his office he took the express package that Boatner had sent to his address there, to Boatner's boarding-house. He tried to get Boatner to take the money, but Boatner refused, saying he did not feel safe with the money about him; that he was going to Louisville in the morning, and to express the money there.

Schlitzbaum says he then started to his boarding-house, and in passing along near some old cars on the railroad, two persons ran out from behind a box car and grabbed him, thrusting pistols in his face, and saying: "If you say a word we will kill you, but we won't hurt you if you will go with us."

He says they then walked him up the Illinois Central track for two miles, when they stopped, took the package of money which he says contained $28,000, broke the seal and divided it between them. The younger of the two then told him that six months ago Boatner stole $30,000 from his father; that he and the man with him had been on his track and for the last few days had been shadowing him.

They then told him he must take some "knockout" drops which they had and go to sleep so they could safely get away; that the drops would not hurt him and he would wake up after awhile. He submitted to take the drops and says he woke up Saturday morning twelve miles up the road, not knowing how he got there. He was soon arrested by Marshal Sam Keown, of Fordville, and Deputy Sheriff Joe Roberts, who took him back to Fordville, where he swore out a warrant for the arrest of Boatner.

Boatner left Fordville for Louisville early Saturday morning, but was arrested at Irvington on the charge of being a party to a conspiracy to rob the Americian Express Company of a package said to have contained $28,000.

Boatner and Schlitzbaum were arraigned for trial at Fordville last Monday before Esquire T. A. Evans. Schlitzbaum waived an examining trial. Boatner was given a preliminary hearing and both were held over to the November term of the Ohio Circuit Court. Their bonds were fixed at $30,000 apiece. In the absence of the County Attorney, who could not leave the court here, the prosecution was in the hands of Mr. H. P. Taylor.

Schlitzbaum is heavy set and has a frowning countenance. Asked if the package which he sent from Owensboro to Fordville contained $28,000, Boatner replied that he certainly knew that it did. Schlitzbaum was asked if he was certain that the robbers counted out $28,000 before his eyes after they had taken the package from him alleged to contain this amount. He replied by asking who was the man who was questioning him. Being informed that his questioner was THE HERALD scribe, he nudged Boatner in the side and together they repaired to an inner cell and refused to talk. Boatner seemed pleasant and willing to talk, but Schlitzbaum was sullen and would not even confess his name. They have not yet employed counsel.

There is much mystery surrounding the case and the alleged $28,000 package has not yet been found. It is the general opinion here that it was a green goods game, very awkwardly manipulated.

What A Tale It Tells.

If that mirror of yours shows a wretched, sallow complexion, a jaundiced look, moth patches and blotches on the skin, it's liver trouble; but Dr. King's New Life Pills regulate the liver, purify the blood, give clear skin, rosy cheeks, rich complexion. Only 25c at J. H. Williams drug store.

Resolutions of Respect.

Resolved, upon the death of Thomas Larkin Griffin, passed and adopted by the officers and directors of The First National Bank of Hartford, Ky., August 13, 1902:

WHEREAS, By the dispensation of an Allwise God, our esteemed President and beloved brother Director, Thomas Larkin Griffin, has been called from his labors among us to that eternal place prepared for those who love Him, therefore be it

RESOLVED, That in his death the First National Bank has sustained the loss of an able, conservative, faithful member of its directory and its capable and honorable President, who has so successfully directed the affairs of our Bank since its organization; that the community has lost a just and upright citizen, and the family a kind and indulgent father and husband.

RESOLVED, That we mutually, with his family, grieve over the loss we have all sustained, and that we commend them to Him who is a father to the fatherless and a husband to the widow, and who doeth all things well.

RESOLVED, That these evidences of respect and esteem be spread upon the records of the Bank, a copy presented to the family of the deceased, and that they be read at the funeral services of our co-worker and published in each of the Ohio county papers.

G. B. LICKENS, Agt. Pres.
J. C. RILEY, Cashier.
ALVIN ROWE,
J. P. STEVENS,
C. J. RHODES, Directors.

RESOLUTIONS, upon the death of Thomas Larkin Griffin, passed and adopted by the officers of the Ohio County Fair Co., August 13, 1902:

WHEREAS, By the dispensation of an Allwise God, our esteemed President, Thomas Larkin Griffin, has been called from his labors among us to that eternal place prepared for those who love Him, therefore be it resolved:

1st. That in his death the Ohio County Fair Co. has sustained the loss of an able, conservative, faithful and devoted member of its directory, and its capable and honored President; that the community has lost a just and upright citizen and the family a kind and indulgent father and husband.

2nd. That we mutually, with his family, grieve over the loss we have all sustained, and that we commend them to Him who is a father to the fatherless and a husband to the widow and who doeth all things well.

3rd. That these evidences of respect be spread upon the records of the Ohio County Fair Company, a copy presented to the family of the deceased and published in each of the Ohio county papers.

W. G. HARDWICK, Sec'y.

A Physician Healed.

Dr. Geo. Ewing, a practicing physician of Smith's Grove, Ky., for over thirty years, writes his personal experience with Foley's Kidney Cure: "For years I had been greatly bothered with kidney and bladder trouble and enlarged prostate gland. I used everything known to the profession without relief, until I commenced to use Foley's Kidney Cure. After taking three bottles I was entirely relieved and cured. I prescribe it now daily in my practice and heartily recommend its use to all physicians for such troubles. I have prescribed it in hundreds of cases with perfect success." All druggists.

Horror of the Scene Drove a Spectator Mad.

SOUTH BEND, IND., Aug. 17.—Mrs. Barney Tenebaum, wife of a commission dealer, was driving with her two young children and two neighbor's children named Fraher this afternoon. The horse backed the buggy into in front of their home. The occupants were hurled against the side of the train. One of the Tenebaum children was instantly killed, while the mother and two other children will die. One of the Fraher girls saved her life by jumping. Tenebaum is away on a business trip and cannot be located, but is supposed to be in Toledo, whence his wife came. A woman passenger on the train was so affected by the horror of the affair that she went insane.

Educate Your Bowels With Cascarets.
Cascarets, Cathartic, cure constipation forever. 25c. H. C. C. C. Co. All druggists refund money.

For Sale.
I desire to sell my entire holdings of land containing about 600 acres, of bottom and hill land, plenty of timber for all farm purposes. Good outbuildings and five tenant houses and plenty of water, 35 acres in meadow, 60 acres in clover. A one third cash payment will make the payments easy. I will sell as a whole or will cut it up to suit purchaser. The land is situated on Hall's Creek, about two miles west of Sulphur Springs. For further particulars call on or address ALBERT COX, 3117 Sulphur Springs Ky.

DON'T WAIT.
If you knew how SCOTT'S EMULSION would build you up, increase your weight, strengthen your weak throat and lungs and put you in condition for next winter, you would begin to take it now.
Send for free sample, and try SCOTT'S BOWNE, Chemists, 40 Wall Street, New York. 50c and $1.00 all druggists.

Have a Cumberland Telephone
—Placed in your residence or place of business, and put yourself in direct contact with the Long Distance Lines
—To all parts of the United States. For terms call on C. P. NOWLIN, - Manager

Persons Who Contemplate Building
Will do well to get prices and estimates from S. H. SEIBERT & SON, the well known builders and contractors, Hartford, Ky. They will Make You Estimates

And do your work by the day or contract. They keep Doors, Windows and all kinds of Building Material constantly on hand at prices to compete with anybody. Best of workmanship and material guaranteed.

Laurels Again!
The Paris Exposition has made the Gold Medal Award to I. W. HARPER KENTUCKY WHISKY
Gold medals were provided for the Exposition 1903 and 1904. Chicago 1904.

RESOLUTIONS, upon the death of Thomas Larkin Griffin, passed and adopted by the officers of the Ohio County Fair Co., August 13, 1902:

WHEREAS, By the dispensation of an Allwise God, our esteemed President, Thomas Larkin Griffin, has been called from his labors among us to that eternal place prepared for those who love Him, therefore be it resolved:

1st. That in his death the Ohio County Fair Co. has sustained the loss of an able, conservative, faithful and devoted member of its directory, and its capable and honored President; that the community has lost a just and upright citizen and the family a kind and indulgent father and husband.

2nd. That we mutually, with his family, grieve over the loss we have all sustained, and that we commend them to Him who is a father to the fatherless and a husband to the widow and who doeth all things well.

3rd. That these evidences of respect be spread upon the records of the Ohio County Fair Company, a copy presented to the family of the deceased and published in each of the Ohio county papers.

W. G. HARDWICK, Sec'y.

RESOLUTIONS, upon the death of Thomas Larkin Griffin, passed and adopted by the officers of the Ohio County Fair Co., August 13, 1902:

WHEREAS, By the dispensation of an Allwise God, our esteemed President, Thomas Larkin Griffin, has been called from his labors among us to that eternal place prepared for those who love Him, therefore be it resolved:

1st. That in his death the Ohio County Fair Co. has sustained the loss of an able, conservative, faithful and devoted member of its directory, and its capable and honored President; that the community has lost a just and upright citizen and the family a kind and indulgent father and husband.

2nd. That we mutually, with his family, grieve over the loss we have all sustained, and that we commend them to Him who is a father to the fatherless and a husband to the widow and who doeth all things well.

3rd. That these evidences of respect be spread upon the records of the Ohio County Fair Company, a copy presented to the family of the deceased and published in each of the Ohio county papers.

W. G. HARDWICK, Sec'y.

A Physician Healed.

Dr. Geo. Ewing, a practicing physician of Smith's Grove, Ky., for over thirty years, writes his personal experience with Foley's Kidney Cure: "For years I had been greatly bothered with kidney and bladder trouble and enlarged prostate gland. I used everything known to the profession without relief, until I commenced to use Foley's Kidney Cure. After taking three bottles I was entirely relieved and cured. I prescribe it now daily in my practice and heartily recommend its use to all physicians for such troubles. I have prescribed it in hundreds of cases with perfect success." All druggists.

Horror of the Scene Drove a Spectator Mad.

SOUTH BEND, IND., Aug. 17.—Mrs. Barney Tenebaum, wife of a commission dealer, was driving with her two young children and two neighbor's children named Fraher this afternoon. The horse backed the buggy into in front of their home. The occupants were hurled against the side of the train. One of the Tenebaum children was instantly killed, while the mother and two other children will die. One of the

ECONOMY DRY GOODS STORE

NEW FALL MILLINERY

In Ready-to-Wear Hats.

All Summer Goods at Reduced Prices!

Pink and White P. K., 20c quality for.....10c
Black and White P. K., 20c quality for.....10c
White P. K., 30c quality for.....20c
Black and White Lawn, 12c quality for.....8c
Black and White Batiste, 20c quality for.....10c

Shoes! Shoes!

More Shoes and better quality for the money than any other house in Ohio county. Try us and see.

Don't

Forget that we handle a full line of Clothing and Men's Furnishings. Come to see us. You will find what you want.

Mrs. Sara Collins Smith

HARTFORD.

SUBSCRIBE FOR THE HERALD---$1 A YEAR

HELLO! EXCHANGE

INDEPENDENT LOCAL EXCHANGE TELEPHONE

Kodol